pretty bow syndrome. Erris and Nimira's relationship is almost nonexistent throughout the book... only to then go from zero to 60 in a few pages. It was sad to see all the emotional investment I had in these characters from the first book not play a bigger part in the sequel.

Book Review: Magic Under Stone - The Book Monsters

Magic Under Stone is the sequel to Magic Under Glass and succeeds in being both a follow up to what happens next to Nim and Erris, and being a book of growth and expansion for Nimira. It also expands the world more, adding a Jinn character that we follow from time to time.
