I really enjoyed Bullet and I wondered if Rock Bottom would be as good. Well it was better. Extremely emotional continuation of Ethan’s struggle with substance abuse told by him. Again the characters were exceptional and Jade Jamison is now one of my favorite authors. It is best to read them back to back.

I feel like TV shows always explore this idea that reality tv twists words around to create drama and how those made up scenes make a big conflict between the characters but Victorious approaches this idea in a really interesting way by letting the characters realize that the drama is fake and they can work together to make interesting drama without making conflict in the group.
